

Our 130 Segal Fellows:

51% are National Service alumni

62% Women	37% Men	1% Gender Queer
--------------	------------	--------------------

90% are actively engaging in their communities as citizen leaders

Fellows by Sector

- 46% Nonprofit
- 21% Public/Government
- 18% Private
- 15% Full-Time Students

Our Fellows make an impact across sectors and issue areas

Fellows by Race/Ethnicity

- 47% White
- 24% Black/African American
- 14% Latinx
- 9% Asian/Asian American
- 6% More than one race or ethnicity

More than half of Fellows identify as people of color

Our Fellows and programming have focused on:

The Continuing Fight for Racial Justice

2020 Segal Fellow Lydia Casmier Derfler interned with UNCF, supporting their Building a Better Narrative Campaign and creating a Historically Black Colleges and Universities Toolkit.

The COVID-19 Pandemic Response

2009 Segal Fellow Audrey Etlinger Cohen was a Nurse Case Manager at Whittier Street Health Center in Dorchester, MA. Other Fellows have been on the frontline in health, education, and community response.

The 2020 Election & Census

2020 Segal Fellow Irma Zamarippa interned with NALEO Educational Fund, promoting awareness of and access to the 2020 census and election in Texas.

Interest in the Segal Program blossomed, with over 400 applications for 10 Segal Fellowships.

The candidates were so inspiring, that we added an additional Fellow for 2020. This fall, we welcomed our National Service Fellows, in partnership with AmeriCorps (formerly CNCS) and AmeriCorps Alums @ SYA. Pictured (L-R): Lamar Butler, Chris Capron, Paul Nolan, Robyn Pratt & Yancy Singleton.

Based at The Center for Youth and Communities at The Heller School at Brandeis University, we continue to celebrate and leverage all the University offers and to welcome undergraduate and Heller MPP Fellows each year.

