

We've Grown to Include 150 Lifelong Segal Fellows:

Inspiring Hope & Action: NH State Rep. Damond Ford

The Segal Program is inspiring hope and action in a time when American democracy is in crisis. This November, two Segal Fellows were elected to public office, and scores of other Fellows and Founders took action in their own way to fight for democracy and their chosen candidates. Fellow Justin Roias is a new City Councilor in Providence, RI, and Segal Fellow Damond Ford is a new State Representative in New Hampshire.

Segal Fellow Damond Ford is Associate Director of the NH GEAR UP Alliance. After winning his election this November, he shared “I am honored and so proud to represent Hillsborough District 40 as a New Hampshire State Representative... The Segal Network helped get me to this place by recognizing that my citizen leadership journey was ready for the next step. Fellows and Founders supported me in this election. I had many conversations with Segal Network members who have experience running political campaigns, and a few who themselves have run for political office. I will continue to keep the legacy of Eli and Phyllis and the entire Segal Network with me every time I enter the statehouse.”

The Segal Program's power comes from our focus on fostering continued generations of citizen leaders and from the Segal Network's “impact of together.” We foster connections across differences and a mindset of tackling goals with others, across sectors, issue areas, and generations.

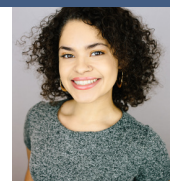

At the highest ratings of “very” or “extremely” true:

- 70% of Fellows reported Segal “Broadened the array of individuals I would not have otherwise come across.”
- 66% reported Segal “Expanded how I think and/or act as a citizen leader.”
- 62% reported Segal “Helped me make a positive difference in the world.”

Even through these times of heightened polarization and of COVID fallout, Fellows are engaging deeply with the Program, one another, and the larger Segal Network of 500+ change makers and confirming its value for them.

- 45 Segal Fellows participated in 5 or more program offerings each year over the past two years (1/3 of Fellows).
